

Waste Concern Receives Environment Award 2007

Department of Environment (DoE) under the Ministry of Environment and Forests of the Government of Bangladesh (GoB) has awarded Waste Concern with Environment Award 2007 in the category of Research and Development of Innovative Technologies and its Applications. This is the first ever Environment Award introduced by the Government of Bangladesh for out standing contribution in improvement and protection of environment.

Honorable advisor to the Ministry of Environment and Forest Dr. C. S. Karim handed over the award to Waste Concern on June 5, 2007 at the Osmani Memorial Hall on the occasion of World Environment Day in Bangladesh.

Other recipients are the Environmental Lawyers' Association (Bela), Globeleq and Bara Dai Casto Ganga Jalmale Committee

On behalf of Waste Concern A. H. Md. Maqsood Sinha, Co-founder of Waste Concern receiving the award from the Honorable advisor to the Ministry of Environment and Forest Dr. C. S. Karim.

Representatives from the four award recipient organization are seen standing in a group photo along with the advisor, secretary of MoEF, Director of General of DoE and representative from FAO

Iftekhar Enayetullah, co-founder of Waste Concern explaining Waste Concern's activity to Honorable advisor to the Ministry of environment and Forest (MoEF) Dr. C. S. Karim and secretary of the MoEF.

Waste Concern's stall demonstrating posters, scientific publications, models of different technologies to convert waste into resource during the World Environment Day 2007 held in Osmani Memorial Hall, Dhaka during 5,6 & 7 June 2007