

Community based urban solid waste management in Dhaka

Partnership model followed

PUBLIC SECTOR

Coordinating the Community Based Urban Solid Waste Management Project under the SCMP of OCC
Providing Seed Money
Providing Land for Establishment of Community Based Composting Plant Free of Charge
Signing Partnership Agreement With NGOs/ Community Organizations

PRIVATE SECTOR

Providing Technical Assistance to Communities for Establishment of Community Based Composting Plant
Providing training to communities on Operation and Maintenance of Plants
Assisting in Marketing of Compost
Marketing the Project After Handing Over to Communities
Purchasing All the Compost Produced from the Community Based Composting Plants and Marketing it through their Country wide Distribution Network in Rural areas

COMMUNITY

Participating in the House-to-house Waste Collection System
Contributing Towards the Cost of Waste Collection
Participating in the Community Based Composting Program & Selling Compost
Appointing Staff for the Program
Operating the Program After One Year of Training & Demonstration

Public-Private-Community Partnership model

Website: www.wastecare.org

impact of the project

CLEANER communities

CREATES employment opportunity

Helping the destitute and hard-core people for new employment
10,500 employment can be created for the urban poor

INCREASES crop yield

Reduces the use of chemical fertilizer up to 30%
Increases per hectare yield by 60% has been found in demonstration plots.

REDUCES municipal expenditure

Contact address: House-2/8 Road-7 Block-6 Baitun Model Town Dhaka-1213 Bangladesh

Copyright © 2005 Waste Concern. All Rights Reserved.